

Shows To Watch

(8 p.m.)—CBS—
Friday Night Movie
 CBS calls on old favorite Jackie Gleason to try to restore some rating order to its terrible Friday night numbers game. The "great one" stars in "Don't Drink the Water," the 1969 film version of the Broadway hit comedy. Gleason, with Estelle Parsons as his wife, are American tourists on a European holiday who are mistaken for notorious spies. Jack is at his blustery best as the harassed Walter Hollander, who also has to contend with a daughter (Joan Delaney) falling in love with the inept son of an ambassador. Howard Morris directs the Woody Allen play. (Repeat of Jan. 3, 1974.)

(8 p.m.)—ABC—
Donny and Marie
 In a show using segments from other shows, making it seem like they had three name guests—Jerry Lewis, Ruth Buzzi and Jim Nabors—the teen-age cohorts do musical salutes to college days and ice hockey. Nabors and Buzzi are teamed in "The French Lesson" and "Feudin' and Fightin'" with Donny and Marie. Jerry, in a number taped when he was a guest earlier, does "Send in the Clowns." (Repeat of March 26.)

(8:30 p.m.)—NBC—
The Rockford Files
 Jim Rockford's repeat caper moves up a half-hour, preempting Danny Thomas tonight. Rob Reiner of All in the Family fame guests as a football player of semipro status who gets himself all loused up with mobsters and G-men in a blackmail plot.

(9 p.m.)—ABC—
Friday Night Movie—SPECIAL.
 "The Emigrants," the Swedish movie of 1972, is making its TV debut at an appropriate time. The Bicentennial celebration peaks in two days, with thoughts of America and freedom and new opportunities uppermost in everyone's mind. This movie, starring Liv Ullman and Max Von Sydow, dramatically recreates the struggle and hardship endured by settlers seeking a new life on the American farm land in the 1850s. It's a film of courage, stamina, hope and achievement.

Police Story
 Robert Hooks and Scoey Mitchell teamed in a number of shows this past season while wearing the blue knight garb. In this 90-minute episode, which was a pilot spinoff, they're tracking armed robbers. In working with an informant, a con man (Lou Gossett), they discover they've lost their highly sophisticated wiretap device. In the wrong hands this could mean their "necks." Godfrey Cambridge, Raymond St. Jacques and James Gregory are in the expanded cast.

(10 p.m.)—CBS—
CBS News Special—SPECIAL.
 "New York, New York"—and you all know the next line of that song. Well, two well-known documentarians think it's a hell of a town, too. Warren Wallace thinks it's awful; Andrew Rooney thinks it's pretty wonderful. Each documents his reasons why. (Repeat.)

Bob Hope And Debbie Reynolds Re-enact Their First Colonial Soap Opera 'Mary Hartford, Mary Hartford'

Big Band Boss Has Modern Flair

NEW YORK (AP) — Maynard Ferguson has something very few people have these days: a big, brassy jazz band. That's not exactly something up there on the popularity charts with Elton John and Fleetwood Mac.

But Maynard Ferguson has never been one to worry about things like that. After all, he's been at the helm of a big band since the '50s. Why stop now? So he just steals a little from whatever is in musical vogue and weaves it gracefully into his own style.

That's why the stocky, middle-aged trumpeter wears his gray hair like a lion's mane, dresses in a gleaming white Yves St. Laurent double breasted suit and hangs a pendant chain around his bull neck.

It's also why he boggles a bit in front of the bandstand and puts a little salsa, disco and rock into his basic jazz band formula.

But while he's willing to borrow a little here and there, he hasn't gone the full boat. The soaring, high-pitched solos are still intact, though not as frequent or as long as they used

Hope Sends Birthday Wishes

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The indefatigable Bob Hope is sending 200th birthday greetings to his adopted land via a "Bicentennial Star Spangled Spectacular" to compete with the skyrockets on July 4.

"We'll have the television news as it might have been done 200 years ago," he promised. "Also, the 'Tonight' show 100 years ago with Ed McMahon and Doc Severinsen in costume — Doc didn't have to change clothes for it. We'll have Debbie Reynolds playing 'Mary Hartford, Mary Hartford,' and I'll be King George."

"There'll be so much straight stuff on NBC all day that I think people will welcome us when we come on and hoke it up. We'll also have a salute to American heroes, but different ones — like Irving Berlin, Sachmo, Jimmy Cagney as George M. Cohan, Wilbur and Orville Wright."

His guest list includes Sammy Davis Jr., Donny and Marie Osmond, the Captain and Tennille, plus cameos by Phyllis Diller, Steve Allen, Angie Dickinson, Rowan and Martin, Don Knotts, Ron Howard and Jimmy Walker.

But who's going to watch television on the night of Uncle Sam's biggest birthday? "I think we'll get a helluva share," observed Hope, referring to the Nielsen figure for share-of-audience. "And I think a lot of people will be home by that hour (8:30 in the East and West). The advertising people have taken surveys that show that working people are generally home by 7 o'clock on holiday nights. So they're pouring a lot of money into radio spots that will reach people with their car radios on the way home."
