

More Than 50 Per Cent Of FSUC Students Come From 5 Counties

More than 50 per cent of the undergraduate students at Fredonia State University College come from a five-county area.

Allegany, Cattaraugus, and Chautauque Counties contributed 28.2 per cent of the 4,306 undergraduates at Fredonia this fall, according to the college's office of institutional studies.

A total of 24.9 per cent of the students come from the counties of Erie and Niagara. The New York City, lower Hudson and Long Island section of the state contributes another 22.2 per cent, with the rest coming from other parts of the state and out of state.

The statistics do not include a breakdown on the college's 706 graduate students.

The undergraduate percentages have remained fairly constant over the years, although the percentage coming from a nine-county area around Rochester has increased from 7.8 per cent in 1971 to 8.6 per cent this year. The total percentage coming from Allegany, Cattaraugus, and Chautauque Counties also rose gradually from 24 per cent in 1971.

The initials for the colors of the rainbow can be remembered by the unusual name they spell out — "Roy G. Biv" — red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo, violet.

MAYNARD FERGUSON and his "Horn of Plenty" bring big band jazz to Fredonia Oct. 15.

Potato Harvest Is Seen Larger

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department Thursday predicted an all-potato harvest of 337,767 million hundredweight up from the 1973 harvest of 299.4 million hundredweight.

The report, based on Oct. 1 conditions, included the first estimate this year of the fall potato harvest. This important part of the 1974 potato production was estimated at 286.6 million hundredweight, up from the 253.9 million hundredweight harvested in 1973.

The following estimates of fall potato crops, by region, were included in the latest report, with 1973 figures shown in parentheses:

Production estimates for the leading fall potato states, with 1973 harvest shown in parentheses, included:

Maine 36.2 million hundredweight (28.7); Idaho 80.4 million hundredweight (79.9); Washington 41.5 million hundredweight (35.2); Oregon 1.7 million hundredweight (1.5); North Dakota 22.2 million hundredweight (19.1); and Minnesota 14.7 million hundredweight (13.1).

Maynard Ferguson Concert Is Tuesday

Maynard Ferguson brings his trumpet and orchestra to Fredonia State University College Tuesday, Oct. 15. The jazz concert will take place in the Harry A. King Concert Hall of the Michael C. Rockefeller Arts Center at 8:30 p.m.

Ferguson, who played to a capacity audience at Fredonia State in 1971, in the United States for a brief tour. The Canadian-born musician has been headquartered in Britain since 1968. His career began 28 years ago, when he played with the bands of Jimmy Dorsey, Charlie Barnet, and Stan Kenton.

In 1953 he went to Hollywood to become first-call trumpet man for Paramount Pictures. He then formed his own group, which toured for 11 years. Traveling to England, he organized the forerunner of the present big band, which has been called "a powerhouse" by the New York Times.

Tuesday's concert, sponsored by the Fredonia Jazz Ensemble, will feature some of Ferguson's best-known band arrangements.

Ticket information and reservations are available at the Campus Center box office, or by calling 673-3501.

State's Brilliant Fall Colors Drawing Tourists, Artists

ALBANY—Now is the time for tourists, photographers and painters to head into New York State's Adirondack Mountains, where nature is putting on its most spectacular performance of the year—the annual fall foliage spectacular, according to the New York State Department of Commerce.

The red, orange and yellow brilliance of multi-colored hillsides can be enjoyed while riding along four-lane expressways or two-lane roads that wind past lakes, rivers, and forests. At Whiteface Mountain, near Wilmington, McCauley Mountain in Old Forge and Gore Mountain at North Creek, chair lifts take foliage observers above the trees for breathtaking panoramas. Other fall tourists follow hiking trails for close-up inspection of Jack Frost's handiwork.

For fall color, the State Department of Commerce suggests a number of circular tours through northern New York. Allow time to stop by the side of the road, to walk a way into the forest, to photograph a solitary red maple reflected in blue water, or to rest beneath a golden arbor by the edge of a bubbling brook, the Department advises.

One tour follows the Adirondack Northway north from Albany to Exit 22; Route 9N along the west side of Lake George and Lake Champlain to Westport; then south to Albany from Northway Exit 31. Or, from Albany, travel to Northway Exit 30, west on Route 73 to Lake Placid near the high peaks of the Adirondack Mountains; west on Route 86 to Saranac Lake; Route 3 to Tupper Lake; Route 30 south to Blue Mountain Lake; then southeast to Route 28 leading to the Adirondack Northway and back to Albany.

The Central Adirondacks can be reached from Exit 27 of the New York State Thruway at Amsterdam. Follow Route 30 north to Blue Mountain Lake; Route 28 southwest past the Fulton Chain of Lakes; Route 12 south to Thruway Exit 31 at Utica; then east on the Thruway through the Mohawk River Valley. From Utica, reverse the route.

To travel through the heart of the Adirondack Forest Preserve from Plattsburgh, go south on Route 9 to Keeseville; Route 9N to Keene; west on Route 73 to Lake Placid; Route 86 to Saranac Lake; Route 3 to Tupper Lake; Route 30 to Blue Mountain Lake; Route 28 southeast to Route 9 or the Adirondack Northway to return to Plattsburgh. Or, from Plattsburgh, travel south on the Northway to Exit 22 at Lake George, north on Route 9N and Route 9 back to Plattsburgh skirting the shoreline of Lake George and Lake Champlain.

Other scenic roads include Route 30 from Malone south into the northern Adirondacks and Route 3 which crosses the state from Lake Ontario to Lake Champlain. Interstate 81 from Syracuse leads to Route 12 and Route 37 along the St. Lawrence River.

Route 86 between Lake Placid and Jay passes through Wilmington where, weather permitting, visitors can see a magnificent view of the Adirondacks by driving the 8-mile highway to just below the 4,867-foot summit of Whiteface Mountain, or, on weekends, by riding the chair lift two miles to the summit of Little Whiteface.

Also on weekends, Gore Mountain off Route 28 near North Creek offers tourists a ride on a Gondola Lift above mountain-sides in full color. At Old Forge on Route 28 in the Central Adirondacks, the McCauley Mountain Chair Lift carries visitors to a panorama of the Fulton Chain of Lakes.

An overview of 32-mile-long Lake George, surrounded by color, is the reward for a five-and-a-half-mile drive up Prospect Mountain Veterans' Memorial Highway. The entrance is in Lake George Village and there's a picnic and cookout area at the summit.

Fall foliage boat rides are available on Lake George from the Village Dock, on Lake Placid from Holiday Harbor, and on the St. Lawrence River from Alexandria Bay and Clayton.

Weekly reports on foliage conditions are issued by the State Department of Commerce to newspapers, and radio and television stations.

Portland

FIRE CALLS

The Portland Fire Department answered two calls last week.

The first call, Oct. 4 at 12:12 p.m., was to the scene of an accident on Prospect Road at Barnes where a vehicle driven by Mrs. Paulene Scheller had failed to make a curve and crashed. Mrs. Scheller and a passenger in the car, Mary Bullock, were taken to Westfield Hospital where they were treated for minor injuries.

A call responded to at 8:15 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 6, took firemen to the Lake Road home of S.D. Reforgiat. A road fire had caused an over-heated chimney. The damage was slight.

PORTLAND BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Marjorie Montfort was hostess to members of the Portland Bridge Club at a meeting held recently at her home.

Bridge honors were awarded to Mrs. Frances McFadden, high; Mrs. Emma Titus, second high; and Ester McIntyre, low.

Mrs. Alice Williams was hostess to the Thursday, Oct. 10, meeting held at her home.

60TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reese of Smith Street, will be honored at an open house Sunday, Oct. 13 in celebration of their 60th wedding anniversary. The event will be held at the John Whitcomb Dill Post, American Legion, Brocton.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend. The family requests that no gifts be purchased for the couple.

The party will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Reese's children and their families.

BUSINESS NEWS

EXECUTIVE BUSINESS NEWS CHANGES ANNOUNCED BY M. & T. BANK

Claude F. Shuchter, chairman of the board, president and chief executive officer, outlined major changes in the management structure of the $1.3 billion Manufacturers and Traders Trust Co.

Top appointments tapped Andrew Billings Craig, III, as the bank's president and Frank C. Harding as vice-chairman of the board. Both had been executive vice presidents. In addition to assuming their new positions, both Mr. Craig and Mr. Harding were elected to the board of directors of M. & T. Bank.

Mr. Craig has been with M. & T. Bank since 1957. In addition to the duties of the president, the bank's by-laws call for Mr. Craig to serve the offices of the chairman and chief executive officer in the absence of Mr. Shuchter.

Mr. Harding, an M. & T. Bank veteran of 21 years, will assume the prime responsibility for corporate planning and financial affairs of the bank.

The new highest-level division, of responsibilities formalized by these appointments have been in practice for some time.

In addition, formation of three new management groups were ratified by the bank's board of directors. They will provide a functionally-oriented basis of operation, replacing the traditional departmentalized banking structure.

Carl J. Usatch has been named executive vice president of the new personal banking group. Mr. Usatch, a resident of Clarence, will be responsible for all consumer deposit activity as well as all consumer banking services and the M. & T. Bank 60-office system.

Two other key nominations to the group include Howard B. Vahue, named administrative vice president for all personal services, and Richard M. Craig, new administrative vice president for personal banking.

A new corporate banking group will be under the direction of William A. Wilson, also elected an executive vice president. His group will be concerned with corporate lending, corporate services and associated money-management activity. Mr. Wilson has been senior lending officer and head of the commercial banking department. He is a Buffalo native.

County Among 189 Areas Eligible For More U.S. Aid In Job Creating

Assistant Secretary of Commerce William W. Blunt Jr., today announced that 189 areas of the Nation have become eligible for increased Federal financial aid to help plan and carry out projects to create jobs.

The areas become eligible for the increased benefits upon their designation as Redevelopment Areas by the Economic Development Administration, the Commerce Department agency working to help create jobs and increase incomes in areas of the Nation with problems of high unemployment.

Blunt said the areas previously had been designated as Title I areas by the EDA, eligible only for grants to help build public facilities essential to long-range growth.

Redevelopment areas, Blunt said, are eligible for the full range of EDA benefits under the Public Works and Economic Development Act. In addition to public works grants, these include: —Public works loans at long-term, low-interest rates. —Long-term, low-interest loans to help private enterprise expand and create new job opportunities.

—Planning and technical assistance to help solve problems blocking growth.

Today's designations are based on an amendment to the Public Works and Economic Development Act voted by the Congress and signed by President Ford on September 27.

Redevelopment areas designated under the 1974 amendment to the Public Works and Economic Development Act include:

New York—(counties) Chautauque, Chenango, Delaware, Erie, Genesee, Montgomery, Niagara, Otsego, Schuyler, Sullivan, Washington.

In current statistics, most murderers are between the ages of 25 and 29, and most of their victims are in the same age bracket.
